

Scope

Tātou ki Uta Plan is a statutory document prepared under the Reserves Act 1977. The plan provides direction for coastal land owned or managed by Wellington City Council as public open space, covering shorelines, coastal platforms, and escarpments between Oriental Bay and Karori Stream. The plan applies to land above the mean high-water mark and as outlined in the scope and sector maps, and schedules.

- 1 Te Kopahou coast and the coastal route
- 2 Taputeranga Southern Bays
- 3 Hue te Para
Lyll Bay
- 4 Rangitatau
Moa Point to Breaker Bay
- 5 Te Whanga Rāwhiti
Eastern Bays
- 6 Mātai Moana coast
Shelly Bay Road and Massey Bay Road
- 7 Ākautangi
Cobham Drive to Point Jerningham
- 8 Te Rāngai o Onemutu
Oriental Bay

